Writing	All-About Book Project: Day 1: Brainstorm ideas for a non-fiction, all-about book (a topic you are excited to teach about). Pick a topic from your list of ideas. Tell me your topic on ClassDojo! Research your topic and list facts you know or learn.	All-About Book Project: Day 2: Sort the facts you researched or know into similar groups. Create a table of contents for your book. Create diagrams for your book.	All-About Book Project: Day 3: Write a first draft of your book, following your table of contents and using your researched facts.	All-About Book Project: Day 4: Revise and edit your book. Check for correct capitalization, punctuation, and spacing. Make sure you have included text features of non-fiction and details about your topic.	All-About Book Project: Day 5: Write the final copy of your book to be published. Include color!! On ClassDojo for students, make a video of you reading your All-About Book and share it with me!!
